

Università di Foggia

Dear Colleagues, Dear Partners,

We kindly invite you to our International Staff Week at the University of Foggia, which will be organized for the first time. The event will be held between 19TH and 24th June 2017 in Foggia, Italy. The purpose is to promote the idea of internationalization and strengthen our international partnership through personal meetings. The main topics of the workshops will be: Joint Degree programme, Management of student mobility with Erasmus+, benefits of studying abroad and foreign language learning. It also offers a good opportunity for all participants for international networking and to share our knowledge and experience in the field of mobility.

We encourage all partners to make use of the Erasmus teaching and administrative staff mobility opportunities at their home institutions. All participants will be asked to make a presentation about their respective institutions. Therefore, we encourage you to bring some brochures, short videos and any other information material. Participants will have the chance to meet our students and coordinators from the respective Departments at the University of Foggia. Information about accommodation, the detailed programme of the International Week and the application form are also published on our website.

We would appreciate your forwarding this invitation to all interested people/units at your institution who might benefit from this International Staff Week at the University of Foggia.

Please note that participants are expected to cover their own travel and living expenses through the Erasmus funds for staff mobility or otherwise.

Application Deadline: 31st March 2017

Fee: 150 €

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions or need any additional information.

We look forward to meeting you in Foggia.

Kind regards,
International Relations Department
University of Foggia
